WELCOME TO THE ISLE OF MAN TT RACES

Described by Murray Walker OBE as the 'greatest motor-sporting event in the world', the Isle of Man TT is a truly unique spectacle that has no equal and no substitute. Excitement, triumph, glory, exhilaration, disappointment and despair - the TT has it all. If you are a fan of motorcycling sport in its purest form, the Isle of Man is the only place to be in June. If you haven't been before you are in for the ride of your life!

Racing on the TT Mountain Course captures the imagination in a way no other event can.

With the demise of other similarly legendary events and circuits, the Isle of Man TT stands as the last of the great motor-sporting tests in the world today. With a course that has remained largely untouched since 1911, the 37 plus miles of public roads captures the imagination like no other motorcycling venue can. Whether its the tight and twisty roads through tree-lined glens or the open spaces of the Mountain tops, the TT Course never ceases to amaze and astound. It is the ultimate test of man and machine.

TT 2012

Once again the very best road racers from across the globe will be battling for the famous TT trophies in what promises to be another spectacular display of skill and bravery. It is expected that '5 in a week' hero Ian Hutchinson will make his eagerly anticipated return, joining his fellow stars of big screen smash 'Closer to the Edge'. Look out too for some very exciting additions to the entry list and the very first TT Supertwins Race. Simply unmissable!
